FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Pack your Winter Gear—Snow has Arrived at South Lake Tahoe!

Zephyr Cove Resort to Open Snowmobiling this Weekend

South Lake Tahoe, Nev.—Jan. 24, 2011— A series of winter storms has dumped between 3 1/2 and 6 feet of beautiful, fresh snow around Lake Tahoe, setting the stage for a fantastic season of alpine skiing, snowmobiling, shopping and other winter activities attracting thousands of vacationers. Located on the shore of majestic Lake Tahoe, with easy access to ski slopes and activities, Zephyr Cove Resort is offering exciting new deals to enhance this year's winter vacation.

Packages include:

- Buy 2 get 3: Book two consecutive nights, get a third night free.
- Mini-Vacation Package: weekend package including lodging, two lift tickets at Heavenly Ski Resort and breakfast to two.
- Stay n' Ride Package: two-nights lodging, snowmobile tour and breakfast for two.
- Stay, Ride n' Cruise: two-night stay with snowmobile tour, breakfast and seats aboard the M.S. Dixie II's Emerald Bay cruise for two.

Zephyr Cove Resort's daily snowmobile tours, the only tours offering expansive views of Lake Tahoe from snow-covered peaks, will begin January 28 and no trip to Tahoe is complete without getting out on the lake. Special winter cruises begin on January 31 aboard the Tahoe Queen. Skiers can enjoy the convenience of a cross-lake ski shuttle to Northstar California and North Lake Tahoe scenic cruises will run from the Hyatt Regency Lake Tahoe on Tuesdays and Thursdays, as well as an après ski cruise on Wednesday evenings, with live music, drinks, and small bites.

Zephyr Cove is the perfect blend of being “away from it all and close to the action” with its secluded location on the banks of Lake Tahoe and its free shuttle to Heavenly Mountain Resort and Heavenly Village.
