

Five ARAMARK Harrison Lodging Conference Centers Receive Prestigious 2007 Pinnacle Awards

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. — May 30, 2007 — ARAMARK Harrison Lodging (AHL), a leader in the conference and corporate training centers industry, announced today that five of its managed properties have been awarded Successful Meetings' 2007 Pinnacle Awards, the mark of excellence for conference centers in North America. This is the fifth year in a row that AHL properties have received the prestigious award.

This year's AHL award recipient properties include: Babson Executive Conference Center, Wellesley, Mass. (now managed by FLIK); Charles F. Knight Executive Education Center at Washington University, St. Louis, Mo.; National Conference Center, Lansdowne, Va.; and R. David Thomas Executive Conference Center, Durham, N.C.; and Harrison Conference Center at Lake Bluff, Lake Bluff, Ill.

Now in its 23rd year, the awards recognize hotels, resorts, conference facilities and destination support organizations for excellence in sustaining meetings, incentive travel and trade show programs. Criteria for the Pinnacle Awards include conference services; meeting space and room design; technical facilities and services; guest accommodations; food and beverage schedule and quantity; package pricing value; recreational amenities; and location. Winners are selected by the readers of the publication.

"ARAMARK congratulates the four AHL-managed properties that received Successful Meetings' renowned Pinnacle Award this year and the staff members who provided exemplary services," said Jeff Weggeman, vice president of sales and marketing, ARAMARK Harrison Lodging. "AHL is committed to creating and providing the most complete guest experience and this is not only a win for ARAMARK Harrison Lodging, but also for our clients, partners and guests."

Industry experts have likened the Pinnacle Awards to other prestigious travel awards like the Mobile 5-Star and the AAA 5-Diamond. The Pinnacle Awards have earned the reputation as the most credible and prestigious symbol of excellence among meeting planners and conference center executives alike.

Pinnacle Award winners are announced each August in Successful Meetings' annual Pinnacle Registry. The list is also available online at www.successmtgs.com.
